CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PLAYERS

Civil Service North of Ireland Cricket Club is committed to promoting and maintaining the highest standards of behavior and conduct both on and off the field. This Code of Conduct applies to all players, officials and members of the club and any match played under the auspices of Civil Service North of Ireland Cricket Club.

All players are asked to read and abide by the following:

Before Play

1. Players must inform a member of the Selection Committee on or before selection meetings if they are unavailable for the following Saturday.
2. Players will be informed by the respective Captain of their selection and the required meeting time.
3. Players who become unavailable after teams have been selected must inform the Captain of the team for which they have been selected immediately, by phone.
4. Late 'cry-offs' (Friday night or Saturday morning) disrupt your team and other teams in the club and are only acceptable in exceptional circumstances. Players who do not have an acceptable reason for such instances may jeopardise their selection for future games.
5. Players who fail to turn up for a game will be asked to provide an explanation to the Selection Committee and if this is deemed unacceptable may be subject to suspension or any other sanction deemed appropriate.
6. Training – the details of Training Times are held on the club website csnicc.com.
 - 1st XI squad players (men and women) – are expected to attend at least one training session per week.
 - Players in teams below the first eleven squads are expected to do their best to attend their respective Club Training evening.

NOTE: All players improve their chance of selection if they regularly attend training.
7. All players are expected to play in CSNICC kit.
